

Future Directions in Maternity Care

A new direction for Maternity care in WA is being developed by the Health Department. Your views will help them develop the new maternity care policy - along with responses from others, international and national best practice and evidence based research.

Follow the link below to access the document and have your say.
<http://www.clinicalnetworks.health.wa.gov.au/maternitycare>

Please note that from April to June of 2007 you will have the opportunity to comment on the draft policy drawn up from initial consultation processes with health providers and consumers. You can contact the Health Consumers Council for more information on 9221 3422 or info@hconc.org.au