

Workshops, training and events: terms and conditions

July 2026

By registering for an HCCWA training session, you agree to the following:

- The information you provide will be used to manage your registration, communicate with you about the event, issue certificates of attendance where applicable, and improve our training and services.
- HCCWA uses trusted third-party service providers to manage registrations, distribute certificates, and send email communications, including newsletters. Your information may be shared with these providers only for these purposes and will be handled in accordance with applicable privacy laws.
- You may unsubscribe from marketing and newsletter emails at any time by using the unsubscribe link included in those emails. Essential communications about your booking will still be sent where necessary.
- HCCWA does not sell or rent your personal information to third parties.
- We reserve the right to refuse or cancel registrations that are fraudulent, abusive, or appear to involve spam, automated registrations, or misuse of our booking system.
- By registering, you confirm that the information you provide is accurate and that you agree to these terms.
